

Name _____

Teacher/Period _____

Scientific Vocabulary from Fortune's Magic Farm

Instructions: Match the highlighted words to their correct definitions.

The marmot whistled, then threw a rock. _____

She had a tendency to grow lichen on her scalp. _____

He wore gloves to keep the seeds from sprouting. _____

Once the sunlight is released, the pod evaporates. _____

Isabelle grew more mold patches than anyone else. _____

The garden is filled with weeds and the seeds are rotting. _____

She had found the lone barnacle on one of the creosote pilings. _____

She knew that barnacles ate plankton. _____

Whenever she sat on the ground, the earthworms migrated toward her. _____

Composting is a skill all tenders must learn. _____

A sapling shot up from the table. _____

The green pants and green shirt were made from kelp. _____

---

1. A young tree
2. Tiny plants/animals that live in the water
3. Decaying/breaking down
4. A thick-bodied rodent
5. A moss-like plant that grows on rocks
6. A furry fungus
7. Oily liquid made from tar
8. A tall plant that grows in the sea
9. Beginning to grow
10. Turns into vapor and vanishes
11. Moving to another place
12. Putting garden waste into a big pile so it breaks down into dirt