

Name _____

Teacher/Period _____

Ocean Essay

There is very little life to be found in the ocean water at Runny Cove, Isabelle's village. Isabelle's grandmother tells her that the ocean used to be full of fish and sea life, but now all Isabelle can find is a single barnacle.

Isabelle's story is fiction, but today, in the real world, our oceans are in trouble. Can you think of some things that are hurting our oceans?

What could we do to help our oceans? _____

